Free Workshops for Nonprofits – Top Funders in Connecticut

Farmington, CT -- FundraisingINFO.com, an Internet fund-raising consulting company with regional offices in Farmington, is conducting free workshops for Connecticut nonprofit organizations. "Top Funders in Connecticut: Who Are They? Where Are They? How Do We Reach Them" is designed to help nonprofits learn about the largest givers in Connecticut – individuals, foundations, and corporation – and how to improve their fund-raising efforts.

Led by fund-raising expert Jonathan Spinner, PhD, this interactive seminar will cover areas that are on the cutting-edge of Internet technology and provide new avenues to acquire donors and donations, including:

- prospect research tools
- streamlining research operations
- board development
- on-line support services and much more.

Workshops will be held throughout the state at the following dates and locations:

- January 17: West Haven, CT at the University of New Haven
- January 25: Farmington, CT at Walker Systems
- January 26: New London, CT at the Women's Center
- January 27: Stamford, CT at the United Way
- January 31: Bridgeport, CT at the Burroughs Community Center
